'Intersubjectivity and Italian Field Theory: James Grotstein and Antonino Ferro'

A Summer Series of Four RBS 2020
Zoom Seminars

Dear RBS Colleagues,

We continue to explore Intersubjectivity and Italian Field Theory through the work of two important contributors, James Grotstein and Antonino Ferro.

This series of Zoom seminars serve as both an introduction to the work on this topic as well as an elaboration of some of its important clinical themes. What are some of Grotstein's enduring clinical contributions? How does Ferro reflect upon Grotstein's work in his distillation of Italian Field Theory? How does Ferro understand Bion's clinical thinking?

The line-up of facilitators discussing Grotstein and Ferro's papers are as follows:

June 20, 2020: Joseph Aguayo, PhD, FIPA:
J.Grotstein, (2009). 'Chapters 2 & 3, (on the topic of psychoanalytic technique in) '...At the Same Time and Another Level...Psychoanalytic Theory and Technique in the Kleinian/Bionian Mode', pp. 18-23; 24-41.

How to access seminars and video recordings:

The RBS will email you a Zoom link one day in advance of each seminar. Save the email and click on the link a few minutes before the seminar begins to join the group.

By registering for these seminars, participants agree to sessions being recorded and made available after each session to registered participants only. If you miss a session you will still have access to recordings of all sessions. Our aim in offering this series is to continue a regional dialogue in keeping with the group relations spirit of the RBS.
