

The 5th International Conference on the Work of Frances Tustin
The Emerging of the Self
April 16 – 18, 2010
Logenhaus, Emser Strasse 12-13, D-10717 Berlin (Germany)

Preliminary Programme

Friday, April 16

- | | |
|--------------|---|
| 15.00-19.00h | Registration |
| 16.00-16.30h | Welcoming address by
Ursula Reiser-Mumme, BPI
Judith Mitrani, Tustin Trust
Gerhard Schneider, DPV
Andreas Heinz, Humboldt Universität |
| 16.30-17.30h | Introduction:
B. Nissen (Germany)
The Emerging of the Self - Theoretical and Clinical Considerations |
| 17.30-19.00h | Introduction:
D. Rosenfeld (Argentina)
The Creation of the Language and the Self
Video: I am a real kid |
| 19.00h | Welcome Cocktail |

Saturday, April 17

- | | |
|--------------|--|
| 09.00-10.30h | Maria Rhode (Great Britain)
Shapes on the threshold: Some Milestones in Children emerging from Autism
General discussion |
| 11.00-12.30h | Luisa Busch de Ahumada & Jorge Ahumada (Argentina)
Some further Clinical Thoughts on Autistic Mimesis
General discussion |
| 12.30-14.00h | Lunch |

Please mark your choice for Clinical and Theoretical Seminars as well as for supervisions. Please note that most of the seminars and supervisions run parallel.

- 14.00-15.30h Clinical Seminar: Chiara Cattelan (Italy)
..... Die Augen zu wie vor zu vieler Ferne (Rilke) - (Eyes closed for fear of too much remoteness) - Reality and Illusion in a child with autism
- 14.00-15.30h Clinical Seminar: Gerhard Schneider (Germany)
From the autistoid position to the oedipal level. The development of inner space in the treatment of a patient with a severe borderline pathology
- Theoretical Seminar: Alina Schellekes (Israel)
Shadow and Double: Illusion of absence and presence in the emergence of self
- EXTRA: PA in Berlin: Ludger Hermanns (Germany) – (also organises Psychoanalytical City Tour on Sunday)
Psychoanalysis in Berlin – Explorations into the first hundred years
- Supervision: David Rosenfeld (Argentina) & Suzanne Maiello (Italy)
- Supervision: J. & T. Mitrani (USA) & Didier Houzel (France)
- 16.00-17.30h Clinical Seminar: Suzanne Maiello (Italy)
NO-BODY – notes on the absence of physical awareness in autistic children
- Clinical Seminar: Angelika Staehle (Germany)
“I am you and you are me” – from the enactment of archaic twin roles to the beginnings of separation and a “psychisation” of the self. The analysis of a nine years old handicapped girl with autistic features
- Theoretical Seminar: Hermann Beland (Germany)
“I have no idea what it might mean what I am feeling” – no news from a grey nothingness. About the gradual emerging from a newborn anorexia after traumatic insults.
- Theoretical Seminar: Kate Barrow (Great Britain)
Mourning in autism and narcissism
- EXTRA: Self&Culture: Andreas Heinz (Germany)
Transcultural aspects of self construction
- Supervision: Luisa Busch de Ahumada & Jorge Ahumada (Argentina)
- Supervision: Chiara Cattelan (Italy) & Alina Schellekes (Israel)
- 20.00h Gala Dinner

Sunday. April 18

- 09.00-10.30h Ludwig Haesler (Germany)
“Shall hate be fairer lodg'd than gentle love?” Struggling for Survival and Autonomy
General discussion
- 11.00-12.30h Judith Mitrani (USA)
“Trying to enter the long Black Branches: Implications of the Work of Frances Tustin for the Analysis of Ordinary Adult Patients”
- 12.30h Farewell Cocktail

Programme committee: Bernd Nissen, Salwa Meier, Dorothee v. Tippelskirch-Eissing

Speakers/Lectureres:

Jorge L. Ahumada is training analyst at the Argentine Psychoanalytic Association, Mary S. Sigourney Awardee and Honorary Member of the British Psychoanalytical Society. He has published in eight languages.

Kate Barrows, is a training analyst of the British Psychoanalytical Society and a Tavistock trained child psychotherapist working in Bristol. She had edited "Autism in Childhood and Autistic Features in Adults". Karnac 2008.

Hermann Beland, training analyst in private practice (Berlin). Former president of the German Psychoanalytic Association (DPV). Numerous publications on issues of theory and technique of psychoanalysis.

Luisa C. Busch de Ahumada is full member, Buenos Aires Psychoanalytic Association, and IPA child analyst. She has written on autism and child psychoanalysis in major journals.

Chiara Cattelan child psychiatrist, member of the Italian Psychoanalytic Society. Benefited from Tustin's supervision. Chaired the third Tustin Memorial Trust International Conference: Beyond Autistic Barriers, Venice 2006.

Ludwig Haesler, M.D.. Psychoanalyst in private practice (Berlin). Numerous publications on issues of theory and technique of psychoanalysis as well as on interdisciplinary topics (mainly concerning the relationship of psychoanalysis and philosophy, music, literature and art).

Andreas Heinz, MD, director and chair, Dept. of Psychiatry, Charité Berlin (CCM). Studied medicine, anthropology and philosophy. MD 1988, Professor of Addiction Research (Univ. Heidelberg) 2000, Prof. of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy (Humboldt Univ. Berlin) 2002.

Ludger M. Hermanns, psychoanalyst in private practice in Berlin, Psychosomatic Consultant, Honorary Archivist of DPV and BPI, Editor of "Jahrbuch der Psychoanalyse" and books on history of psychoanalysis.

Didier Houzel (France), Professor of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, Member of the French Psychoanalytic Association, won the Frances Tustin Memorial Prize in 2002.

Suzanne Maiello, Dr. psych., Italian Association of Psychoanalytic Child Psychotherapy. Supervision with Frances Tustin (1978-1980). International Frances Tustin Memorial Prize (1997). Publications and co-author of books on autistic states.

Judith L. Mitrani, PhD, FIPA- Training/Supervising Analyst, Psychoanalytic Center of California. Author of published books and papers, founding/current Chair, Frances Tustin Memorial Trust, private practice with adults in Los Angeles.

Theodore Mitrani, Ph.D., training child and adult analyst at the Psychoanalytic Center of California and The Newport Psychoanalytic Institute. Co-editor of books and publication in several journals. On the Board of Trustees of The International Frances Tustin Memorial Trust.

Bernd Nissen, Dr. phil., training analyst in private practice (Berlin). Several publications on hypochondria and autistic states. Editor of "Autistische Phänomene in psychoanalytischen Behandlungen" (2006) and „Entstehung des Seelischen" (2009) (Psycho-sozial Verlag)

Maria Rhode (London) is Professor of Child Psychotherapy at the Tavistock Clinic, with a longstanding particular interest in autistic spectrum disorders.

David Rosenfeld, training analyst, Buenos Aires Psychoanalytic Society, ex vice president IPA; consultant Professor of Buenos Aires University. Sigourney Award 1996; Hayman Prize 2007. Member of the Board of the IJPA. Several publications in books and journals.

Alina Schellekes, training psychoanalyst at the Israeli Psychoanalytic Society; Head of the Primitive Mental States program, Program of Psychotherapy, Tel Aviv University; one of the recipients of the Phyllis Meadow Award, 2006, New York; International Frances Tustin Prize, 2008.

Gerhard Schneider, Dr. phil., Dipl.-Psych., Dipl.-Math., training analyst, president of the German Psychoanalytic Association (DPV). Special interests: identity, internalization, treatment and art.

Angelika Staehle, training child and adult analyst. Director of the training of the German Psychoanalytic Association (DPV). Publications on theory and technique in Child- and Adultpsychoanalysis, special interests in primitive mental states, the nature of the Unconscious from Freud to Klein and Bion, projective identification and autistic phenomena.

Excursions offered especially for participants: Itinerary will be send together with confirmation.

- Pre-Convention Tour visiting Dresden and Meissen, April 13-15, 2010 (leaving Berlin at 09.30h) € 398,--pP in double
 - Pre-Convention Tour visiting Dresden and Meissen, April 13-15, 2010 (leaving Berlin at 09.30h) € 485,--pP in single
 - Old and New Berlin 15.04., 09.00h/ 16.04., 09.30h/ 18.04., 14.00h € 30,--pPx__pers
 - Living with the Wall 17.04., 14.30h/ 18.04., 14.00h € 38,--pP__pers
 - Jewish Berlin 16.04., 09.30h € 36,--pP__pers
 - Berlin by boat 17.04., 10.30h € 20,--pP__pers
 - Potsdamer castles and parcs 15.04., 13.00h/ 18.04., 09.30h € 60,--pP__pers
 - Dinner in the Fernsehturm 15.04., 19.45h € 42,--pP__pers
 - The Jewish Museum 15.04., 15.00h using Museums Pass € 5,-- pP __pers
 - Egyptian (New) Museum 16.04., 14.30h using Museums Pass € 9,--pP __pers
 - Pergamon Museum 15.04., 18.00h/ 16.04., 13.00h using Museums Pass € 9,--pP __pers
 - Story of Berlin 17.04., 13.00h/ 18.04., 12.00h € 15,--pP__pers
 - Museums Pass valid for 3 days € 20,--pP__pers
 - Berlin Welcome Card (free public transfer for 72 hours) € 23,--pP__pers
 - Psychoanalytical City Tour 18.04., 14.00h € 30,--pP__pers
- The Citadines and Park Inn are two hotels close to the congress venue and rooms there will be offered at a special congress rate. Please send more information.

Please return to Congress-Organisation Geber+Reusch, Habichtsweg 11, D-60437 Frankfurt, Germany.
 Tel: +49 (0) 69 50 52 39, Fax: +49 (0) 69 90508884, geber-reusch@t-online.de

Registration:

- Registration fee until 14.02.2010 € 280,--
- Registration fee after 15.02.2010 € 320,--

(Registration fee for students on request – please contact Geber+Reusch)

- Gala Dinner € 55,--pP
- Gala Dinner (for students) € 45,--pP

Payable either by credit card (MASTER/VISA)

.....
 expiry date

or by bank transfer to

Geber+Reusch, Dresdner Bank Mannheim (Germany) bank reference 670 800 50, account 07 112 762 06, SWIFT: DRES DE FF 670, IBAN: DE53 6708 0050 0711 2762 06

Name.....

Address.....

email.....